

The goal of my website is to enhance user engagement on my Basketball Center website by implementing interactive features providing in-depth player statistics, and fostering a community through forums and discussions. To improve post moves and scoring efficiency in the paint by dedicating focused practice focus practice sessions three times a week, incorporating footwork drills and refining hook shots, scoring average 20% by the end of the season.